

moroccan

Exotic pieces inspired by the North African country legendary for its design.

Colorful, slightly frosted updates on traditional tea glasses are also great for wine or aperitifs.

JAYSON HOME & GARDEN
PALACE GLASSES, $22 EACH, JAYSONHOMEANDGARDEN.COM

Lucky breaks
page 238

Covered in delicate metalwork, this bright blue glass perfume bottle is so pretty on a vanity.

BERBER PERFUME
BOTTLE, $45,
MOROCCANPRESTIGE
.COM

Lines of silver beads give a smoky gray scarf the right touch of sparkle.

EMBELLISHED COTTON GAUZE SCARF, $38,
RAJ IMPORTS. SELECT NORDSTROM, 800-933-3365

We adore the finely wrought detailing and flower motif on this weighty cuff.

BANGLE, $24,
STEPHAN & CO.,
ALLTHERAGEONLINE.COM

Lucky breaks
page 238

Handmade and imported from Morocco—the ideal foil for a table of solid-colored china.

HANDMADE SAFI PLATTER, $55,
JUSTMOROCCO.COM

Grown near Marrakech, poirron rouge (a.k.a. sweet red pepper) has a delicious paprika-like flavor and dramatic color.

MOROCCAN POIVRON ROUGE, $7, MUSTAPHAS.COM

The graphic zigzag pattern instantly adds interest to a bedroom or a bath.

JOHN ROBshaw
TEXTILES COTTON
INDIGO DHURRIE, $75,
JOHNROBshaw.COM

Straight out of a souk, a shapely silver-plated teapot that serves four to eight.

TEA TIME TEAPOT, $68,
CASABLANCAMARKET.COM

